

FORTY LEFT ON PIER AS MAJESTIC SAILS

Friends and Relatives Separated, Also Baggage of Second Class Passengers.

TIME ADVANCED AN HOUR

Big Liner Starts at 11 o'clock Instead of Noon, as First Advertised.

About forty second class passengers booked on the White Star liner Majestic were left on the pier yesterday morning when the big ship sailed for Southampton and Cherbourg.

To the congestion always attending the departure of a large passenger ship was added yesterday the confusion resulting from a change in the sailing hour of the Majestic from noon to 11 o'clock. Although this had been advertised, there was a last minute rush to attend to tickets, passports and baggage on the part of second cabin passengers booked.

The ship could not be delayed, as a later time would have been unfavorable. When the dazed passengers awoke to their plight they descended upon the White Star passenger officials with demands for relief. A rumor spread that they could be accommodated on the Baltic, also of the White Star Line, scheduled to sail an hour later. Many rushed to the Baltic's pier, only to be told that all cabin accommodations were taken.

Passenger officials then said that all the belated voyagers could be taken on the Zealand, and there was another rush with baggage to the Red Star pier. Five or more accepted the accommodations offered on the Zealand, but others declared themselves dissatisfied and refused to sail, and hired a lawyer, Frederick E. Klein, 522 Fifth avenue, to represent them in actions which Mr. Klein said would be brought against the White Star Line to-morrow.

Mrs. Rose Evans, 631 East 168th street, wife of Charles Evans, clothing manufacturer of 10 Astor place, was bound for Russia and Poland, accompanied by a three month old baby and Joseph Sand, a guide employed for her by a ticket agency. All of her baggage and Sand were aboard when the plank was drawn in.

Miss Rena Garavelli, aged 17, of Capeville, Tenn., accompanied by Pierina Milani, was booked to sail, but only their baggage got away. Mrs. Milani had with her a seventeen month old baby.

Angelo Levy, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Lockwood, N. Y., was also left behind with his mother. They were bound for Turin, Italy, and arrived at the pier at 9 A. M., according to the Rev. Mr. Levy, accompanied by an aunt, Mrs. Chiara Corradino, aged 68. Only the aunt sailed.

Mrs. E. B. Beteros of Atlanta and Frank and William Battell of New Haven, Conn., who said they had been on the pier since 9 o'clock, made frantic efforts to employ a hydroplane to take them down the bay and put them aboard the Majestic. They were notified by pier officials that the White Star Line would not allow them to board the Majestic from the air.

Ticket agents of the White Star Line declared that all the passengers left behind had received ample notification that the Majestic would sail at 11 A. M. and that this time had been marked on their tickets. Many passengers, among them those who had sought counsel, said they have tickets giving the sailing time noon. They declared also they had been on the pier since early morning.

Those who took passage on the Zealand will arrive at ports on the Continent about four days later than the travelers on the Majestic.

DYNAMITE FOUND IN HOUSE.

Nine Families in Building Deny Ownership of Package.

Twenty-one sticks of dynamite, inclosed in newspapers and wrapping paper, were discovered yesterday on the third floor of a four story brick house at 199 Avenue A by Mrs. Mary Murphy, janitress of the building.

Occupants of the place, which houses nine families, denied ownership of the package, which was addressed "B. Light, Minors Mill, Penna."

The dynamite was turned over to the police of the East Fifth street station. Detectives attached to the bomb squad are investigating.

Facing Pulling of Two More Teeth, Tries Suicide

JOSEPH DENNER, aged 22, of 248 East Thirty-second street, Flatbush, had two teeth pulled yesterday and was told that two more would have to go about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Denner seized a carving knife and stabbed himself in the left breast. He was taken to the Kings County Hospital. His injury is not serious.

BELIEVES PARIS SUICIDE WAS S. L. KOHN'S WIDOW

Friend Who Received Cable Expresses Opinion.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kohn who committed suicide in Paris last week and whose body now lies in a Paris morgue awaiting a claimant is believed by Dr. Samuel Schneider of 236 East Sixty-ninth street to have been the widow of S. Lee Kohn, a New York broker. Dr. Schneider was one of three persons in this city to whom Mrs. Kohn sent cablegrams a few weeks before her death. He said yesterday that from the descriptions given in the cable dispatches he believed the body to be that of the wife of the dead broker. Mr. Kohn, he said, died about three years ago from Bright's disease, and about a year later Mrs. Kohn went to Australia where she intended to invest her money in land. Dr. Schneider said that about two months before her death she cabled him for a loan of $100. Mrs. Lee Hirschfeld of the Hotel Ansonia, who also received a similar request from Mrs. Kohn telegraphed The New York Herald from Bedford Springs, Pa., as follows:

"Elizabeth Kohn, widow of S. Lee Kohn, stock broker; last address, 204 West Seventieth street; native Baltimore, maiden name Allimony; formerly of 400 Riverside drive, New York and the city directory of 1917 shows that S. Lee Kohn lived there at that time. Among the dead woman's effects was found a copy of a will left by S. Lee Kohn, who was at one time secretary of the Acme Security Company of 131 East Twenty-third street."

SUES 20 YEAR FRIEND FOR $50,000 IN ARREST

Disruption Follows Bad Investment in Movies.

Peter C. Heideberger, a retired Greenpoint butcher, yesterday instituted suit in the Brooklyn Supreme Court for $50,000 damages against George A. Woble, a jeweler of 286 Halsey street, Brooklyn, who had been his friend for twenty years. The complaint alleges false arrest and imprisonment.

A year ago Heideberger invested $100,000 in a motion picture venture with Woble. Heideberger invested $5,000. When the company went into bankruptcy Woble caused the arrest of Heideberger, alleging that the butcher had influenced him in making the investment. The Grand Jury dismissed the case against Heideberger, who then decided to sue his old friend. He alleges that his reputation has been injured by reason of false arrest and imprisonment.

THREE FALL 40 FEET INTO STEAMER'S HOLD

Scaffold Gives Way and Engulfed Them.

Three men fell forty feet into the hold of the steamship Texan yesterday at the Crane dock, foot of Columbia street, Brooklyn. A small derrick engine from the platform on which they had been standing followed the men into the hold and fell on two of them. All were seriously hurt.

The men injured were Barbara Arias, twenty-seven, of 7 State street, fractured skull and internal injuries; Jose Suar, twenty-five, of 10 State street, possible fracture of the spine and internal injuries; and Benita Lauro, thirty-six, of 317 Herman street, fractured right leg and fractured right arm.
